Voyant Solutions Announces Opening of California Branch Office

Voyant Solutions Expands West to Better Serve Customers in a Growing Automation and Energy Market.

INDIANAPOLIS, IN- Voyant Solutions is pleased to announce the establishment of a new factory-authorized branch office located in Riverside, California. This office will be known as Voyant Solutions California and will carry the Voyant Solutions value proposition of “Flexible, Cost-Effective Building Automation, Energy Management and IT Integration” to customers on the West Coast of the United States.

Jason Gladney, co-owner and general manager of Voyant Solutions California, believes that Voyant’s message of value will truly resonate with the building owners and operators of Southern California. “Green buildings (sustainability), virtualization and IT convergence are all top of mind with facility owners in California. Add to that the ability to offer a name-branded solution into a growth market with aligned goals, and you have a clear path to success for Voyant Solutions California”, says Gladney.

Sean Kennedy, CEO of Voyant Solutions, is very optimistic about the short term success of Voyant Solutions California and says this, “Establishing brand equity in a market like California is critical path to success. We are excited about working closely with an experienced, industry expert like Jason Gladney and look forward to leveraging his knowledge of the California building market into sustainable profits for the company.”
